

The Potential

A Leather Medic franchise provides the opportunity for you to grow a business at your own pace, from a single mobile unit to as many as your territory can support. Imagine, no limits to how large or how fast you can grow your business. With flat monthly fees (no percentage of revenue), you always know what your expenses are going to be and you don't have to share your increases in revenue with us. We like to keep it simple and profitable for every franchisee.

The Plan

To help you become a successful franchise, you receive everything you need to get started quickly. We'll help you design a business structure and lead you through the successful business model that we have developed by experience. You'll always have free access to both technical and business support for the life of your franchise.

The Package

The Leather Medic is a turn key business opportunity and includes your exclusive territory, all the equipment, supplies, and start up marketing tools that you'll need to get going, including an intensive training program. We also provide you with a complete set of web based operating software for invoicing and customer tracking. We want you to get your business moving immediately so we don't leave anything out!

The Training

Our training program is second to none. Complete state of the art techniques and best practices are provided through "hands on" labs and real customer interaction, all under the guidance of the top practitioner in the business. When you leave the training, you'll be armed with the skills and the tools to get started immediately.

The Leather Medic “Life” Line

Chade Life, founder of Leather Medic, is part surgeon, part artist and part magician. Although reluctant to say it himself, he is probably the most skilled practitioner in the country.

Chade has devoted more than two decades to refining his craft. Years ago, he recognized that there would be a significant and ongoing demand for expert craftsmen who could master the art of repairing and refinishing fine leathers. When he began, he was surprised to learn that there were only three individuals (now retired) in North America with real expertise. He studied with each of them and worked hard through the years to develop his craft. He has developed proprietary processes and materials that have raised the craft of leather repair to new heights.

The result was “Leather Medic”®, a highly successful business with a national reputation.

The Opportunity

Leather Medic’s® corporate office and training center is located in Fort Myers, Florida, with existing franchises all over the U.S.

Leather Medic® never stopped growing and our expansion includes outstanding territory opportunities. We built a program like no other. People from all over the world come to Leather Medic® to train and learn the skills and techniques we developed.

Our reputation and proven system is the reason for the continued demand for our services. Our resources and solid business relationships are available to you on your path to success. We continually track industry trends and innovations that enable your business to be more competitive and ultimately, more successful. After all, your success will promote our reputation even further.

Come, Be a Part

Leather Medic® is a proven business model, but we still continue to explore new ways of doing business better. We operate a corporate owned franchise to test market new techniques and business practices.

Service Areas

AUTOMOTIVE

Clean, attractive cars and trucks are easier to sell. With our training, you'll master auto interior restoration including leather, vinyl, cloth and plastic repair and carpet dyeing. You'll be able to restore leather seats to their original luster. Unsightly carpet stains will disappear. With these skills you can market your business to auto dealers and individual car owners.

FURNITURE

With your new expertise, leather furniture repair and refinishing will be a lucrative portion of your new business. You can repair, refinish, or re-dye all types of leather furniture. Just cleaning and conditioning is also a source of revenue, whether you're in a high end leather furniture store or someone's living room, opportunity for business is there.

RECREATIONAL

Boats, RV's and aircraft are subject to some of the harshest conditions under the sun. Your new skills can be marketed to dealers or individual owners, as you have all the knowledge to repair, refinish, clean and condition all the types of vinyl, plastic, cloth and leather found in recreational vehicles as well.

COMMERCIAL

Virtually any place of business is a potential customer. When you enter a business, whether a restaurant, doctor's office, your lawyer's office, the airport, or your hair salon, take a look around and you'll see just how far you can take your business. Opportunities are everywhere. Take advantage of them.
